  	We will take you on a journey to discover the home of influential artists, good food and local traditions. In the heart of the Po Valley, along the Via Emilia, the famous and ancient Roman road, stands Reggio Emilia. We will visit the Civic Museums with a specialized local guide, where nature, archeology, art and history come together in a place of memory. A return to the past, a play of light and shadow to discover the deepest feelings of the human soul ... this is Antonio Fontanesi and his Inheritance. On the bicentenary of the birth of the famous painter from Reggio Emilia, the Palazzo dei Musei will host the exhibition of the Italian and European nineteenth century painting. Our visit continues with the discovery of the City of the Tricolor, with its fascinating monuments and contemporary works. After art and culture, we continue with food and wine, another excellence of our land: Parmigiano-Reggiano. Among the oldest cheeses known, it is produced today as eight centuries ago with the same ingredients, the same technique, the same artisan care. It is the "cheesemaker" who with his hands, sensitivity and experience creates the "form". We will assist, together, in the manufacturing process and we will taste the King of Cheeses by visiting one of the typical local producers. A true and genuine land in which historicity and contemporary art are intertwined, bringing us to the discovery of the Northern Area, a redevelopment and development project with the bridges of Santiago Calatrava, three white waves in the middle of the Po Valley that from 2013 constitute the ticket a visit to our city, and to the Maramotti Collection, which consists of a significant selection of over two hundred works that represent only a part of the iconographic heritage formed in forty years of passionate collecting by the brand's founder, Achille Maramotti.

Reggio Emilia is a true and genuine land like the people who live there and are waiting for you to welcome you in an unforgettable stay.
